

YM-YWHA GIVES SPECIAL SALUTE TO LUMINARIES

Those who make Brooklyn jive and thrive received plaudits galore at a community recognition night, presented by the Kings Bay YM-YWHA.

The accolades hailed the efforts and support of area leaders and volunteers during the tribute at the local educational and recreational facility, 3495 Nostrand Avenue.

The honorees were: Assemblymember Helene Weinstein, "Building the Future"; Eugene Shkolnikov, field director, Northwestern Mutual Financial Network, "Outstanding Leadership"; Irna Vainrib, RN, Comprehensive Care Management, and Maria Clara Delgado, Wellcare Health Plans, both of whom received "Community Partnership" awards; Jane Abraham, UJA Federation of New York, "Community Service"; and the Warner family, "Exemplary Involvement."

Also hailed were volunteers Glen Balck, Rachel Ginzburg, Shu Yung Lam, Yuk Ching Lam, Harry Levy, Daniela Merkovich and Regina Shrinzes.

Area dignitaries laud honoree Jane Abraham, who received a community service award (holding plaque). Photos by Steve Solomonson

Volunteer award recipients are honored by Assemblymembers Helene Weinstein (left) and Alec Brook-Krasny (second from left).

Honoree Eugene Shkolnikov (second from right) is hailed for exhibiting "Outstanding Leadership."